Vote of no confidence

Sidere mens eadem mutato

To the Senate Fellows of the University of Sydney

Sydney, 25 February 2022

Vote of no confidence in Vice-Chancellor Mark Scott and Chancellor Belinda Hutchinson

We are committed to the highest academic standards in line with The Pillars of a University. The step I am now recommending to the University's Senate has not been taken before and I am aware of its significance.

I and many others are aware of what we believe to be repeated and highly inappropriate activity that has been documented and presented to management. However, management under Mark Scott and Belinda Hutchinson has so far refused to deal with the matter effectively.

I recommend the immediate installation of an external and truly independent Integrity Commission, to investigate the existing problems at the University of Sydney.
